Early Morning Assault. About 4 o'clock this morning Cornelius Dickman had his face badly beaten by some one at the European Hotel. He claims Newt Gair as assailant. He and the latter, who is a well-known character, were taken to the police station and held for the charge when arraigned before the mayor.

THE GREAT RELAY.

Cyclists Dashing Across the Country Ahead of Scheduled Time.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The Chicago-New York relay race, which left this city at 9 a. m. Wednesday with messages that will be received by General Nelson at Miles in New York, is the first competitive bicycle race of such length that has ever been run. There are two sets of riders, the red and the blue. The former represent the military and the latter the postal. They are now dashing across the country and are considerably ahead of the scheduled time.

Blue Ahead at Buffalo. BUFFALO, June 7.—The leader of the blue pouch in the Chicago-New York relay race passed through Buffalo at 8:40 last night. The red rider followed 53 minutes later.

BATAVIA, N. Y., June 7.—The blue pouch passed through this city at 11:50 and the red at 11:49 p. m.

Away Ahead of the Schedule. ROCHESTER, June 7.—The blue relay rider reached here at 12:59:30 a. m. and the red at 1:25:10. The blue at this city was 4 hours, 59 minutes and 30 seconds ahead of schedule time.

END OF THE REBELLION.

Another Decision by Assistant Secretary Reynolds

AS TO VOLUNTEERS' PENSIONS.

April 15 is the legal date, and June 1 is the effective date, 1865, with the date taken by the department on the basis on which volunteers for the war of the rebellion served.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Another decision has been rendered by Assistant Secretary Reynolds bearing on the question of the date of the termination of the civil war and the pensionable rights of soldiers enlisting in 1863 and 1864. The decision is that the question is to be determined as to whether the enlistment was for the war of the rebellion.

In reference to the decision of the supreme court, assigning Aug. 20, 1866, as the end of the war, he says: "The reason why the question would admit of this holding were the right of the parties in the cases involved might be affected by the running of the statute of limitations as the final date, as enlistments in them ceased, will not be deemed enlistment in or for the war of the rebellion and any service rendered under such enlistments will be deemed not to have been rendered in the war of the rebellion.

The secretary, therefore, holds that enlistments in the loyal states after April 15, 1865, when recruiting in them ceased, will not be deemed enlistment in or for the war of the rebellion and any service rendered under such enlistments will be deemed not to have been rendered in the war of the rebellion.

Will Advance for Volunteers. CLEVELAND, June 7.—Bolt and Nut Manufacturers' association of the United States was in session all day yesterday. The manufacturers say the cost of material has advanced, but the price of the product is held to consider the question, and it is understood that the price will be advanced about 10 per cent on the output of the mills.

Two Widows Murdered. MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 7.—Two elderly widows, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Mendenhall, were furnished meals for the luncheon in the local camp, were murdered on Tuesday night. Their houses were robbed by the assassins. An ex-convict named John Parker planned the murder. The sheriff is hunting for him and his confederates in the swamps on the Florida line.

Does the Eye See?

The question is asked in the leading magazine and you find it in the leading magazine.

London has a man who is quite an expert on the subject of the eye. He is a man who is quite an expert on the subject of the eye. He is a man who is quite an expert on the subject of the eye.

Two weeks later, when he went home to his daughter in Lockwood, one of the first things she said to him was: "Did you get the $20 all right?"

HE KEPT THE CHECK. Turfman Green Morris Was Too Cunning For the Banks.

With so many bank robberies all around us it is not surprising that there should be some money among the banks. In general, however, the New York has a clear head. He has faith in the clearing house association, because he really does not quite understand the mystery of it.

Why, Green? I said respectfully, "this is a very good question. What do you mean by keeping it so long? It is nearly worn out. Don't you know that a check should be deposited at once or cashed? Suppose the bank was to fail?"

Green chuckled knowingly and winked as he folded it up and put it back in his pocket.

"I ain't been rainin' horses for nothing these good on high 20 years. I ain't got no faith in no banks. They're too much for me to suit me. That's what I've been afraid of, an' that's why I'm holdin' on to my check. I ain't a-goin' to have no bank fail with me in my pocket."

This same Green is worth now $300,000 or $400,000, and yet cannot write his name.—New York Press.

"Christ! I heard him." All at once is heard in the distance the clear boom of the cannon announcing the hour of midnight. The Russian priest, standing on the steps of the altar, exclaims in a loud and unassuming tones which penetrate to the farthest corners of the edifice, "Christus triumphat!" (Christ hath risen), and the people answer him with one voice, "Vo istine volokses!" (In truth he hath risen).

The woman standing nearest the priest lights her finger at the consecrated one, and then to her by him, her neighbor in turn receives the light from her, and so on, till in a minute, as it were, the chapel was illuminated with a hundred lights.

Fathers and mothers, sons and daughters, friends and relations embraced one another, kissing three times on the forehead and either cheek and exchanging the Easter greeting. The whole congregation, then passing before the priest, did the same with him, and high mass now followed.—Chambers' Journal.

Transporting Carg. When packing two carg for transport by post, some authorities recommend placing in their month's small piece of bread, well steeped in brandy, but I do not myself approve of this plan, as I believe it tends to encourage the fish in a disastrous love for ardent spirits. The eminently respectable Dutch, on the other hand, keep corn through the winter hung up in baskets, but feed them on a blameless course of bread and milk, which the sternest moralist could not fail to approve of.—Cornhill Magazine.

Suit-case. "My," said the shoe clerk boarder, "but I did get a fine lot of sarcasm from my tailor when I had to stand him off again. Still, I rather think I deserved it."

"In other words," gurgled the cheerful idiot, "you deem his remarks both cutting and fitting."—Indianaapolis Journal.

Eye and Darkness. Objects in a dark room cannot at first be seen by one gazing on from the light, because the pupil of the eye has been contracted during the exposure, and cannot at once enlarge to admit sufficient rays of light to enable the individual to see clearly.

Genuine and long-continued applause can work wonders with any act, even the best of them. In a recent performance of "Charlotte Corday," by the Bellevue company, in New York this fact was made manifest. Matat, the libidinally "precocious" of the guild in killed in his bathtub by Charles Corday, enacted by Mrs. Patten. In response to applause, the lady bowed her acknowledgments. The demonstration continued, when, to the amusement of every one present, the curtain was pulled to one side, and the dead Matat smiling took his leave with as much gratification as though he had not been slain but a few moments before.

In Utah the new constitution of the state will be submitted to the voters at the November election. Its distinctive features are the provision including polygamy and the clause granting the right of suffrage to women.

Cost of Living in Europe's Capitals. An investigation into the comparative cost of living at the various European capitals results in the following interesting facts: At Vienna the prices of most articles of food are lowest. At Madrid they are dearer than in any other capital, and such things as bread, meat, sugar and coal are very expensive. At St. Petersburg also the prices of food are high, though white bread is still considered a luxury above the means of the working classes. Next to Vienna, Brussels is an inexpensive city. Paris is a little higher in the scale, but London is "terribly expensive."—Westminster Gazette.

The Smaller the Costlier. Mrs. Hayson—What is the price of that bonnet over there? The Milliner—Just $18. Mrs. Hayson—What will it be if you cut that nice piece of ribbon off the side? The Milliner—Only $30.—Chicago Record.

A Former Lima Lady Writes. GLASGOW, KY., May 27, 1895. DEAR MR. KERN—In gratitude to you, and for the pleasure you have given me, I have decided to tell you what your medicine has done for me. I suffered with a cough which caused my lungs to ache very sore, and had several throat troubles for several years. After taking your medicine for a short time, my cough was entirely cured, and my throat is entirely well. Your truly, Mrs. LEWIS PURDIE.

THERE is but one
Way in the world to be sure of having the best paint, and that is to use only a well-established brand of strictly pure white lead, pure linseed oil, and pure colors.
The following brands are standard: "Old Dutch" process, and are always absolutely strictly pure.

White Lead
These colors are of the highest quality, and are being used by the most successful painters in the world. They are in no way inferior to the best of the pure white lead and pure colors, but are a combination of the two, and are therefore the best of the pure white lead and pure colors.
